National Museum of Wales Competition

Digital Painting & Editing

Cardiff Metropolitan
University | Year 3

December 2020 - For a paid competition commission, I had to produce images that reflect the National Museum of Wales passion for culture to fall in line with their branding. This winning design is now being used for thank you cards for the hard-working volunteers of the museum.

December 2020 - The Mothers of Africa charity held a competition to choose designs for their future marketing materials.
